

8. Training and Development

The company supports continuous learning. Employees are encouraged to attend internal training sessions.

Training expenses may be reimbursed after management approval.

9. Information Security

Employees are responsible for protecting confidential information. Passwords must never be shared. Multi-factor authentication is required for all systems.

Sensitive company information should never be copied to personal devices or shared using personal email.

USB devices should only be used after approval from the IT department.

10. Acceptable Use of Technology

Company computers, email accounts, collaboration tools, and internet access are intended primarily for business use.

Employees must not install unauthorized software or download illegal content.

11. Health and Safety

Employees should maintain a safe working environment by following safety procedures, reporting hazards, and using proper lifting techniques.

Emergency exits, fire extinguishers, and first-aid kits should always remain accessible.

12. Code of Conduct

Professional behavior is expected at all times. Employees should treat customers, vendors, and colleagues with respect and honesty.

Employees should avoid conflicts of interest and disclose any potential conflicts to management immediately.

13. Dress Code

Employees should maintain a professional appearance appropriate for their role. Business casual attire is required.

14. IT Support

The IT department provides technical assistance for hardware, software, printers, network connectivity, and VPN access.

Support requests should be submitted through the company helpdesk portal whenever possible.

15. Data Privacy

Employees must comply with company privacy policies and applicable data protection laws. Customer information

Personal information must never be shared without proper authorization.

16. Expense Reimbursement

Business expenses must be submitted with original receipts within thirty days. Managers must approve all

17. Business Travel

Employees traveling on behalf of the company should follow travel policies regarding transportation, accommo-

18. Disciplinary Policy

Violations of company policies may result in verbal warnings, written warnings, suspension, or termination

Every employee will be given an opportunity to explain the circumstances before disciplinary decisions are

19. Employee Benefits

Eligible employees receive medical insurance, annual leave, paid public holidays, retirement benefits when

20. Conclusion

This handbook serves as a guide for all employees. Policies may be updated periodically, and employees